

GROUND TRUTH INTELLIGENCE FOR GLOBAL DECISIONMAKERS

Dispatch Risk Advisory was founded in 2020 by former U.S. federal law enforcement and intelligence professionals to provide high-impact, boutique risk advisory services to leaders operating across the globe.

OUR CAPABILITIES

Risk Assessments and Market Entry

- Market-entry and security assessments for facilities, programs and staff
- Tailored risk-ratings to match client operations and needs
- Expert views on approaches to risk mitigation and management

Due Diligence and Reputational Risk

- Local source inquiries to support all stages of litigation and deal lifecycles
- Tailored due diligence on entities and personalities
- Asset tracing tools in non-digitized environments

Risk Intelligence and Threat Reporting

- Tailored risk products to answer key business questions
- Operational intelligence on evolving threats
- Subscription reporting on the risk environment

Contingency Plans and Risk Mitigation

- Risk program design and development
- Contingency planning and preparation for various threat profiles
- Crisis table top exercises
- Actively advising clients navigating organizational crises

OUR TEAM

Ben Todd

Ben is a former CIA Officer, Diplomat, and Risk Manager at a Global Bank who has managed risk in dynamic environments around the world.

Adrienne Todd

Adrienne is a trusted international problem solver. She is a former FBI Special Agent and fraud investigator with extensive cross-jurisdictional experience on complex cases.

